SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Whites Hill State College, located in spacious grounds just 8 kilometres from Brisbane CBD, presents excellent opportunities for students to gain a truly international experience. Being part of only 800 students from preschool to Year 12, students quickly integrate into a close knit and small community. With few international students, WHSC offers excellent opportunities for an Australian immersion experience within a rigorous academic environment. The College's strong ties to Griffith University and other tertiary institutions presents students with excellent opportunities for further study. The College's curriculum is enhanced by a range of extra curricular activities including excursions, music and sport.
