In the mornings (lessons 1-4) students have the same programme as the LSI Standard 20 course. In the afternoons (lessons 5-6) there are a range of options to suit you. All LSI schools offer fluency practice – these classes consolidate what you learn in the morning, improving your fluency and pronunciation through discussion on a wide range of topics. There is an emphasis on language for everyday situations. Topics may include: film and theatre, media studies, current events, politics, local culture, research using the internet. Other options vary, depending on your level, the language and the LSI language centre where you are studying.

Examples are:

Examination Skills. You prepare for a wide range of examinations (see page 8).

English for Academic Purposes. You practise skills such as notetaking and essay writing – essential for university.

English for Business (described on page 10).

Plus Courses

The combination of group and One-to-One learning is ideal when you want extra help with general skills or more specialised topics. Plus courses are 5 or 10 individual lessons. Our teachers work with you to develop your study plan. This course can supplement a Standard 20 or Intensive 30 Course.

Mini Group Courses

- 20, 30 or 40 lessons per week
- Participants: maximum 5
- Minimum age: 21 years
- Intermediate to Advanced levels
- Course length: 1-4 weeks
- 1 lesson: 45 minutes (in the USA 50 minutes)
- Courses begin: every Monday

If you want a personal and interactive approach you should also consider the LSI Mini group course. Mini group courses include general grammar and skills. The focus on negotiations, presentations and meetings is relevant in business and non-business situations. It is an exciting alternative to LSI Standard 20 and Intensive 30 courses for more mature learners. (see page 31)

One-to-One

The fastest way to improve your language skills is through individual lessons. Individual lessons are ideal if you prefer a very personal focus on your own aims. (see page 31)

As course details may vary depending on the school, the individual LSI Centre pages will display the details where they differ.

When I arrived at LSI, I started in the Pre-Intermediate class. I have moved up three levels and I feel more confident in speaking – and my progress is not over yet!

Thanks to LSI, my English improved so much because we were talking English all the time. All the teachers were kind and friendly.

LSI Family Course

The LSI Family Course is designed for parents who wish to combine a family holiday with their English studies.

While parents and older children follow the course of their choice at LSI Brighton, younger children (ages 5-15) attend the Hove Summer Camp, just 30 minutes by bus from our school.

The camp has a fantastic range of activities, including arts and crafts, drama, sports, dancing and indoor games. The facilities are excellent and include a gymnasium and tennis courts.

A daily hot lunch is included in the price. For children who do not have a high level of spoken English, English lessons are provided.

Full-time
(Monday-Friday, 9.00-15.30) includes English lessons (3 hours per day/15 hours per week)
UK£220 per child per week
UK£275 per child per week including daily supervised transport from and to homestay.

Childminding
(Monday-Friday, 15.30-17.30)
UK£25 per child per week

The LSI Family Course is available at LSI Brighton from Jul 28-Aug 22, 2008.
