

Kelvin Grove State College

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Only three kilometres from Brisbane City's CBD, KGSC is a distinctive educational community adjoining Queensland University of Technology and the developing Kelvin Grove Urban Village. Convenient to public transport, KGSC is characterised by quality academic learning, schools of excellence, extension courses and seamless transitions from Kindergarten to Year 12.

Year Established 1875

Number of Students 1643

School Size 91,690 m²

Street Address

L'Estrange Terrace
Kelvin Grove
QLD 4059
Australia

Phone

+61 7 3552 7333

Fax

+61 7 3552 7300

Website

[www.kelvingrovesc.
eq.edu.au](http://www.kelvingrovesc.eq.edu.au)

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

- Queensland Dance School of Excellence, leading to a Diploma in Dance
- Queensland Aviation School of Excellence, graduates gain direct entry into Bachelor of Aviation at Griffith University regardless of OP
- Queensland Golf School of Excellence,
- Queensland Music School of Excellence
- Schools of Excellence - Tennis & Soccer

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Student Representative Council
- Orchestra, Ensembles, Bands, Choirs, Jazz Group
- Committees - Formal, Magazine, Social Justice, Amnesty International
- Musicals, Sound & Lighting Production

SPORT

Sport is a compulsory part of the Yr 10 curriculum. Our Tennis, Golf and Soccer teams have been in national championships. A wide range of other sports are played after school.

SCHOOL FACILITIES

- New state-of-the-Art Performing Arts Building
- Specialist Dance Studios
- Sports Facilities - including a new Gym & Swimming Pool
- Business Education Centre

- New Visual Arts Building
- Instrumental Music Building

TERTIARY PATHWAYS

Strong and established links with the adjoining Queensland University of Technology, Queensland Conservatorium of Music and other tertiary institutions, including early university start programs for talented Year 12s.

AWARDS

- Golf – World Schoolboys Teams Champions
- Dance – 4 Yr 12 Graduates from 2003 invited to the Qld Ballet Professional Year
- Visual Arts – invited onto Project Team as a school “most frequently” winning Minister’s Art Awards, 2004
- Soccer – Bill Turner Cup – 2003 QLD Champions & 2003 National Runner-Up
- Minister’s Excellence in Teaching Award, 2004
- Bronze Medal – Genee International Ballet Competition in London

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

- Medal for contribution to Education, 2005 - Principal Greg Heidke awarded Order of Australia (OAM)
- International student 2005, School Dux
- International student invited to prestigious National Mathematics Summer School, 2005

3 REASONS TO CHOOSE KELVIN GROVE STATE COLLEGE

- KGSC together with QUT is part of a unique precinct that provides a focus on excellence in learning
- Over 50 subject choices in Senior School, providing multiple pathways to tertiary courses
- Highly qualified and supportive International Student Program staff

Education Queensland
International

