

Pimlico State High School

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Pimlico SHS is located in Townsville, a medium sized city by the famous Australian Great Barrier Reef. The school has strong links with James Cook University and the Barrier Reef Institute of TAFE. Class structures at Pimlico SHS allow for accelerated learning in the company of students of similar ability. The school has a strong emphasis on academic excellence and is well known for its strong focus in the performing arts, particularly music. Students are able to enjoy a relaxed and sub-tropical small community atmosphere with access to unique Australian natural attractions.
