Sydney – with its Opera House, harbour and famous bridge – is the most recognised and iconic city in the world. It is a beautiful, safe, multicultural city with a fantastic array of cafés and restaurants, great entertainment venues, parks and recreation areas. It's a great place to shop with sophisticated shopping malls as well as local, organic produce markets. ## TEACHING / ASSESSMENT

At TAFE NSW, we maintain the highest educational standards. We utilise the professional skills of university-trained teachers with extensive experience as educators and in the workforce. They create dynamic learning environments in hi-tech classrooms with face to face instruction along with practical, hands-on training in specialist facilities such as multimedia studios, commercial kitchens, computer resource centres and laboratories. Smaller classes means students receive personal attention. A library network with computer and internet access, study areas and other student services provides a valuable learning resource.

You'll be assigned class work, practical tasks and projects throughout your course, with continuous assessment activities including practical assessment and graded examinations.

HELPING HANDS

The TAFE NSW International Students Centre (ISC) can advise you on the courses available and where they can be studied.

Along with a team of international student coordinators, TAFE NSW Institutes offer tutorial support, study and library skills seminars, careers advice, job search assistance, résumé preparation, interview skills workshops and job placement services. We also understand what it's like to live in an unfamiliar environment away from family and friends, so professional counsellors are on hand to help you deal with homesickness, study difficulties and examination anxiety.

LIFE WHILE YOU STUDY

ISC can arrange short-term Homestay accommodation until you decide where you want to live. Homestay means you'll live with an Australian family in their home. Meals, laundry and your own room with a study desk will be provided, and you'll often be expected to share in the household chores.

A number of other options are also available:

- Hostels offer a friendly, safe, supervised environment. You get your own room or a shared room with communal facilities such as a dining room, games room and television room. Many hostels also provide meals.

LIFE WHILE YOU STUDY

- For a furnished/unfurnished rental apartment you'll need to provide linen and pay for utilities such as gas, electricity and telephone. You'll also need to clean your own apartment, do your own laundry, buy your own food and do your own cooking.
- Sharing a house or apartment offers more independence than Homestay or hostel accommodation, however you will need to provide your own furniture (if the house/apartment is unfurnished) and linen. You share the cost of rent, telephone, electricity and gas. You need to buy your own food and do your own laundry and cooking (although many shared arrangements include sharing the cooking).

EXPENSES

You'll need to allow for living expenses in addition to your course tuition fees. This will vary depending on where you study and how you choose to live. It generally costs more to live in Sydney than in cities elsewhere in NSW. Estimated living expenses for an international student are approximately A$12,000 to A$20,000* per year (or A$210 to A$340 per week) which covers food, accommodation, clothing, travel and entertainment.

Accommodation and transport costs are generally lower outside Sydney. Check your local exchange rates to calculate costs.

WHAT TO DO NEXT

An international student application form for our English language and vocational courses is included with this brochure. ISC can help you with the application if required. Once accepted, you'll be sent a detailed course offer to include with your visa application. After the tuition fees have been paid, you'll receive a college orientation program and International Students Arrival Guide to prepare you for your Australian stay. We recommend you arrive one to two weeks before the start of your course. After all, you'll want to take a look around our exciting city and set up house. The International Students Centre can also arrange to collect you from the airport when you arrive for a fee of A$130*.

Your TAFE college conducts information sessions at the beginning of each course to familiarise students with college procedures, provide information about living in Australia, the range of services available and where to get help. You'll also meet your International Student Coordinator.

Please visit www.studyintafe.edu.au for details about our colleges.

“The TAFE NSW campus is very central within the city, which is great. There are all sorts of shops close to hand and also a good bus and rail service so you can get around easily. In my spare time I like to relax as life in Sydney is very busy. There is never any shortage of places to chill out. I also like to shop and use the school computers to keep in touch back home.”
